RICHMOND, April 20.

The Senate on Saturday passed a dozen bills appropriating fifteen hundred thousand dollars for the construction of a railroad between Galveston and New Orleans; also passed the House bill to provide for the organization of Partizan Rangers.

The Senate refused to concur in the resolution of the House, and rescinded the resolution, fixing the day of adjournment on the 21st.

In both Houses the report of the joint committee on the flag and seal was received.

The accompanying was received as the design for the flag: Red field, White Saltier, having in centre a device of the sun on azure shield, one star for each State.

The House postponed the consideration of the report for the present, yeas 39; nays 21.

Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom-House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. J. L. PENNINGTON.

C., 13th January, 1862.—Said Reid is supposed to be thirty-seven years of age, five feet eleven inches high, sandy hair, blue eyes, red complexion and down look, nothing promising indicated in his appearance. Said Reid's residence is Caldwell county, N. C., where he is supposed to be lurking. Bring him in and receive the money.

OF THE
HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER, DEVOTED TO
POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.
PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contiue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press. I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.......................$400
Weekly...200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.................$100
Each subsequent insertion.....................25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER
THE TIMES;
A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.
$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. R. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

The Literary Paper of the South
"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Address R. M. STOKES.

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless unless they have arms. Upwards of 20,000 stand of arms are now lying useless in our houses; these arms should be collected and placed in the hands of our noble defenders. None but a craven or disloyal citizen will refuse to comply with this requisition. I will immediately appoint suitable agents to go through every county in the State, empowered to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, impress arms; but in the meantime let me entreat all true patriots to send in all of their muskets, rifles and double-barrel shot guns (good, bad or indifferent,) to the sheriffs of the different counties, whom I do hereby authorize to receive and pay for them agreeably to the attached schedule of prices, and draw on me for the amount necessary.

For good rifles and muskets, $13 and $20 each, according to value; good double-barrel shot guns from $13 to $38, according to value; other arms and parts of arms according to valuation.

I have also been requested to purchase old scrap iron, whether cast or wrought, and of all weights, for which I will pay for the former 1½ cents per pound; for the latter 4 cents. W. S. ASHE.

CHARLOTTE, March 1, 1862.

The Great Yankee Army which was Used up on Sunday.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing under date of March 27, gives us some interesting particulars regarding the Yankee army which has just been cut to pieces and scattered broad-cast by the gallant Confederates near Corinth:

Few rivers (Tennessee) has ever had as imposing a sight on their banks. Sixty thousand men and miles of horses, wagons, cannons, and so forth, although everything is bustle and preparation, there is no confusion. The law of order was never better illustrated. It is vast military machinery, where men are springs and wheels all moving regularly, surely on in the great work of preparation. Wagons are loaded before they seem hardly to have reached the goods, and tents are moved in a traction of the usual time. There is no lounging or anxiety to shirk, but universal cheerfulness and confidence. The tone of the Western army is completely changed. It is no longer "if we capture such a place," but "when we capture it." The soldiers are thinking of nothing but victory. They have confidence in themselves, and the haunting, terrified apprehension has fled. They believe now that as they march forword it is to conquer. This peculiartiy, is so different from the gloom produced by reverses and inactivity, at once strikes the stranger.

A happier, healthier, more efficient army than that now at Savannah and Pittsburg never, probably went to war. Each regiment is burning to win laurels to wear with their companions who got fame and scars at Fort Donelson. Opposed to this noble army is a rebel force of forty-five thousand, lying in wait behind their works, eighteen miles distant. Corrinth is a position naturaly strong, and formidable defences have been erected there. Riffle-pits, redoubts, abattis and other means of strength, from behind which to hurl destruction upon an assailing force, having been constructed. The very best rebel military talent, embracing Beauregard, Bragg and others, is concentrated there, and at Corinth will be fought the great decisive battle of the Western campaign. Forty heavy guns and a great number of field pieces are possessed by the enemy, and immense stores of provisions are gathered in. The flower of the South are congregated there to offer battle and they cannot retreat except by sacrificing everything.

The road between the Uuion camps and Corinth is a long and excellent turnpike and the distance can be easily traversed in a day. Gen Grant has his headquarters at Savannah, while the bulk of the army lays at Pittsburg. Parade grounds and spots for comfortable quarters are being cleared, and everything gives token of a week's longer stay there. During that time Gen. Buell is expected to reach a point from which he can carry out successfully the part assigned him. Whilst at Savannah, word reached there that Gen. L Wallace, with fifteen thousand men, having taken a circuitous course, had penetrated to Florence and destroyed railroad communication in that direction with the South.

THE YANKEES IN ONSLOW—THEIR TRUE CHARACTER—ATTROCIOUS OUTRAGES.—We are enabled to lay the following facts, not rumors, before the public. They ought to be sufficient to open the eyes of all to the nature of the enemy to whom we are opposed, and the character of the contest in which we are engaged. If these facts do not show the value of professions contained in the hipocritical proclamation of Burnside and Goldsborough; if they do not convince all that there are but two alternatives victory or absolute ruin; if they do not make the blood of every man in the State tingle through his veins, and every heart swell with the desire for revenge, then nothing can. These are the mild-mannered saints, the pet lambs that came to revive the Union feeling in North Carolina, and make proselytes to the away of Abe Lincoln.

The enemy, in their late visit to Onslow county, brought over one regiment, one piece of artillery, and one baggage wagon—such at least seems to be the most correct account. In the neighborhood through which they passed, they committed the most unheard of depredations—carried off all the prominent citizens in irons and ropes, and went so far as to paddle Mr. Henderson, a very respectable man for having free negroes bound to him. Mr Pelletier they cowhided, also a Mr. Buck. They took off everything of value they could get hold of; they broke open trunks—took jewelry, blankets, carpets, towels, everything. In fact they ransacked every house they came to, using the most abusive language to all, and the most insulting to women. They incited the negroes to fight against their masters, telling them that in a few days they would have a line of pickets from Newbern and Swansboro',—that they would be back in 7 or 8 days with reinforcements.

The robberies committed at the house of Mrs. Sanders are fully confirmed. They even stole all her gold and silver, gold and siver plate, jewelry, gold watch, notes, title deeds, and so forth. In fact, the half of these outrages has not been told. They took everything they could carry off. Their only excuse we hear of, was that Mrs Sanders had given entertainment to a body of Confederate cavalry some time before.

GUNBOAT ENTERPRISE.

[For the Daily Bulletin.]

COTTON GROVE, Davidson Co., N. C., }
April 19th, 1862. }

Mr. Editor:—As an example of the cordial and universal sympathy of the people for our sacred cause, I send you the following list of contributions for the gunboat enterprise:

On the Ladies list one hundred and seventy dollars were raised before they handed the list to me. Since then, during my daily rounds as a physician, I have collected eight hundred and sixty-four dollars, making a total of one thousand and thirty-four dollars. This was accomplished in a few days and with but little exertion. I find all classes cheerful and liberal in their contributions.

I would suggest that you call the attention of practicing physicians of the State to this enterprise, and request them to act as collectors. They can more readily reach all classes, "high and low," than any one else, and can be of great service to the ladies who have so nobly undertaken to raise funds for the gunboat "Old North State."

Mrs. Gov. Ellis is the receiver of contributions for Western North Carolina. Her address is Holtsburg, N. C.

R. LAMAR BEALL.

THE LATE COLONEL ROBERT M. MCKINNEY.—The Lynchburg Virginian pays the following tribute to the memory of Col. McKinney, who fell in battle on the Peninsula last Wednesday:

In common with many of our readers, we regret to hear of the death of this gentleman, a native, and, until within two years past, a citizen of Lynchburg. Col. McKinney was a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, and when the war broke out was Professor of Tactics in the North Carolina Military Institute. He volunteered his services to his adopted State, was elected a Captain, and subsequently Colonel of the 15th N. C. regiment, at the head of which he fell, day before yesterday, whilst gallantly defending the soil of his native State. Col. McKinney was quite a young man, and had bright prospects before him; but, alas! they have been suddenly blighted, and an aged, infirm father, sisters, and brothers, by all of whom he was deservedly esteemed, are left to mourn the sudden death of a beloved son and brother.

The remains of Col. McKinney reached Petersburg on Thursday, on the way to Lynchburg, for interment.

The Battle of Shiloh.

The New Orleans Picayune, of April 9th, contains several telegraphic dispatches from Corinth from which we gather the following paragraphs:

Van Dorn's reinforcements of 20,000 men are coming up. A part of them arrived last night.

The advance of Gen. Hardee suffered most in the recent engagement. There were 1,100 casualties out of 2,500 men in Gen. Clepburn's brigade. In Col. Thornton's 6th Mississippi, there were 300 casualties out of 400 men.

Over 5,000 prisoners have been counted up to this time. They have been sent to Tuscaloosa, Ala.

In Confederate D Respouse, there were 27 printers, three of whom were wounded.

The second day's fight has been the bloodiest conflict ever known on this continent, and was illustrated by deeds of valor and heroism never exceeded.

There was a report that Gens. Van Dorn and Price had come up with reinforcements. But this was premature. It was caused by the enthusiastic cheering of our men all along the lines at the speech of Beauregard to the troops; in which he said that men had never fought with more intrepid valor than during these two days, and that he would continue the fight from every hill top and valley until the invader would be driven from our soil.

Gen. Hardee and staff are all safe. The General and Capt. Hunt are slightly wounded.

Gen. Beauregard led the 18th Lousiana and the Orleans Guards in person, charging the enemy's lines, with the colors of the regiment in his hands, driving back the enemy with great slaughter.

The Picayune of the same date, has, also, the following:

We have it in our power to state that the rumor that Island No. 10 has been taken is incorrect. It is still held by our forces, and is likely to be to the end.

We have the pleasure of knowing that, yesterday, 5,000 of Van Dorn's force reached Memphis on their way to join Beauregard, to be immediately followed by large numbers more.

There is a well authenticated report in town, this morning, that the Federals have entirely evacuated the different points on the Mississippi Coast, including Pass Christian, &c.

From the Mobile (Ala.) Tribune, of the 14th inst., we condense the following paragraphs:

Gen. Van Dorn started from Memphis on Tuesday last for Corinth, with 15,000 men.

The Confederate troops cooked, ate supper, and slept within 5,000 yards of the enemy's gunboats.

Gen. Buell's Orderly, who was taken prisoner, reports that Buell had died of the wounds he had received, during the engagement on Monday.

Breckinridge was in command of a Division. His brigade was composed of four Kentucky, two Alabama, and one Tennessee Regiment, and Capt. John H Morgan's squadron of cavalry, and was commanded, during the fight by Col. R. P. Trabue, of the 4th Kentucky regiment.

There were 19 Confederate Generals in the fight. Of these, one, A. Sidney Johnston, was killed, and three, Gens. Clarke, Johnson and Gladden, severely wounded. The latter has since died of his wounds.

From a member of the 21st Alabama Regiment we learn that at about Monday Col. Cayce was taken prisoner, which left the 21st without a leader. The regiment had been fighting hard all day, and finding themselves in this condition called on a major of a Georgia Regiment to lead them again to the field. He took the colors on his horse, and accepted the position. They soon afterwards met General Bragg, who proposed three cheers for the gallant regiment, and said he would lead them himself. Col. Cayce soon afterwards escaped, and re-assumed his command.

The Enemy's Occupation of Fredericksburg.

The dispatches received at the War Department state that Fredericksburg has been occupied by a column under the command of McDowell, and that our forces there, which consisted only of three regiments, two of infantry and one of cavalry, had been compelled to retire.

On Wednesday evening last notice was given for all our men who were temporarily absent to report themselves at once for duty. Later in the evening our pickets in Stafford, a few miles beyond Falmouth were driven in, and the enemy appeared in such force, (supposed to be not less than five thousand,) as to render it necessary for Col. Lee, with his cavalry, to fall back somewhat hurriedly to Falmouth. The enemy encamped about four miles from Falmouth, and a reconnoissance by some of our officers proved their force to be large. Skirmishing occurred on Wednesday night and yesterday morning, with but slight results on either side. Yesterday our forces retired atter having burned the three bridges over the river, and destroyed all the cotton and tobacco, and most of the stores which could not be brought away.

We learn that much alarm prevailed in Fredericksburg lest the enemy should shell the town, guns having been planted on the opposite side of the river and some shots fired into the outskirts of the town. A meeting of the Town Council, however, was to have been held, at which a surrender of the town, it was expected, would be made.

It is stated that a prisoner, who was taken by our scouts, reports the enemy as advancing with a force of about ten or twelve thousand.

The losses on both sides, in the skirmish on Wednesday night, are said to be slight. Three of the enemy's dead were found on the field the next morning. Our loss was one killed in Col. Brockenborough's regiment and two wounded.

At half-past six yesterday morning our troops evacuated Fredericksburg, having first burned the three bridges over the Rappahanock, the St. Nicholas and steamer Virginia, and eight or more vessels laden with corn, also one hundred and twenty-five bales of cotton, what little tobacco there was in the warehouse, and such commissary stores as could not be transported.

There is no very reliable account of the precise amount of the force of the enemy. Our forces are reported to have fallen back on account of heavy reinforcements of the enemy.—Richmond Examiner.

THE ENEMY ATTACKING NEW ORLEANS. —Official dispatches received here state that the mortar fleet of the enemy is bombarding the works just below the city of New Orleans.

The bombardment has continued for three days. Yesterday, however, the fire was general and raged terribly during the entire day.

At forts Jackson and Philip Gen. J. M. Duncan is in command; he is said to be the most accomplished artillerist in the service, and strong hopes are entertained of the repulse of the enemy.

If the forts should be reduced the iron-clad boat, the Louisiana, which is said to be superior to the Virginia, is expected to contribute to the defence of the city.

[Richmond Examiner.

"DISTINGUISHED" ARRIVALS.—The St. Charles, which reached this city yesterday, brought up two hundred and ninety-two Yankees, who were taken prisoners at the battle of Shiloh. They were well clothed, but did not appear to be in very good spirits, and evidently did not like the idea of visiting the former capital of the Confederacy as prisoners. There was nothing remarkable in their appearance or manner but men, women and children crowded down to the river to see them on their arrival. They were guarded to this city by two companies from Mobile, and after their reception here they were consigned to a warehouse near the river, and placed in charge of some of the companies stationed near this city. Another boat was expected up last evening with an additional number of prisoners.—Mont. Adv. April 16th.

I am authorized by the Secretary of War to raise a Legion for the war. I want an additional regiment of Infantry, two Companies of Cavalry and one company of Artillery. A bounty of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be paid to each soldier upon his enlistment. Cavalry are required to furnish their own horses, for which the government will pay them forty cents per day, and their full value if killed in battle. The best arms and equipments to be had in the Confederacy will be furnished. Recruits will be received singly or by companies. Turn out, and let's make short work with Abe.

WANTED!

A BATTALION

OF

INDEPENDENT SKIRMISHERS.

Permission has been granted Capt. WM. LEE DAVIDSON to raise the above corps. General RANSOM desires such an organization attached to his Brigade.

Three Companies of the above description are more effective than one whole regiment of regulars. It is the same mode of warfare that was carried on in the revolution. Let us harass and annoy the enemy in the rear. One more appeal is made to old Mecklenburg and the surrounding Counties. The Consription act requiring all men between 18 and 35 years of age, to enter the service, has passed the Confederate Congress. The last appeal is made to all within those ages to promptly respond to this call. Especially of our own dear county let it be said—"Many have done WELL, but THOU excellest them all." Organize immediately, elect your own officers, arm with shot guns and to the field.

Burial of Col. McKinney.

LYNCHBURG, April 18.

Col. McKinney, who was killed on the Peninsula Wednesday, was buried here last evening. There was a large turn out of the citizens.

From Huntsville, Ala, &c.

LYNCHBURG, April 18.

The Knoxville Register has a dispatch, dated Bridgeport, 16th instant, which states that neither Decatur nor Decatur bridge had been taken. There were only three thousand Yankees at Huntsville, the balance having fallen back. There are none this side. The steamboat Lookout was not taken, but is at Guntersville untouched.

A man from Nashville says that the enemy are removing their stores, sick and cannon, over the river to Edgefield.

Only two bridges were burnt on the Memphis and Charleston railroad. Our pickets went to Bellefonte last night and saw no enemy.

From the best information received, it is probable they have gone back to Huntsville.

From Corinth.

CORINTH, April 17.

Report of commanders show fourteen pieces of enemy's artillery brought from field of battle, over twenty-five colours and three thousand prisoners captured.

I am requested by Gen. Beauregard to give this to the press. RADY,
Richmond Telegraph Office.

Skirmish near Savannah.

SAVANNAH, April 18.

A skirmish occurred at Whitmarsh Island, Wednesday, between some companies of the Thirteenth Georgia regiment and a Michigan regiment, resulting in the repulse of the latter, with the loss of about twenty. The Confederate loss in killed and missing was five; slightly wounded, seven.

The Federals Evacuate Stevenson, Ala.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Southern Confederacy, of April 16th, says:

This morning we give it as our opinion, from all the information we can obtain, that the Federals, in occupying Huntsville, were co-operating with the bridge-burning engine stealers. They advanced from Huntsville, anticipating the success of the bridge burners, and took the town of Stevenson, and even came to a bridge some miles this side of there, and with a heavy cannon shot away the middle pillar, to prevent our coming upon them at Huntsville.

We learn, further, that they were attacked in the rear this side of Murfreesboro' by some Confederate cavalry, and in the skirmish, some 60 Yankees and 5 Confederates were killed. Upon this intelligence, and the further news of the failure of their men to burn the State Road bridges, they hastily evacuated Stevenson, and perhaps have left Huntsville by this time.

We understand that important movements are on hand near Corinth—though we can't vouch for the truth of the matter.

A private dispatch in the Confederacy, dated at Chattanooga, April 15th, says that the enemy have left Stevenson. No reliable news from Huntsville, Ala.
